Glendale University Graduate Class – Glendale’s Emergency Plan. If a natural disaster hit Glendale, how would the city respond? A new class sponsored by the Neighborhood Partnership Office will educate residents on the city’s emergency plan.

Registration is available now for this continuing education opportunity for Glendale residents who have previously graduated from the 101 class of Glendale University. This two-session course is an opportunity to find out how the city prepares for emergencies and organizes in response to disasters. Students will learn about the laws, processes and issues surrounding disaster preparedness, response and recovery. In addition, the class includes valuable information about how residents can help themselves and their families during a time of crisis. This course will be from 6 to 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 27 and Thursday, Aug. 28 at the Glendale Regional Public Safety Training Center, 11550 W. Glendale Ave.

Registration for this graduate class is due no later than Aug. 22. Click here for more information or to print out an application.

Around Town

Family Fun Night. On Friday, June 27 the city of Glendale will be hosting Family Fun Night from 6 to 9 p.m. at Murphy Park in Downtown Glendale. This fun event gives Parks and Recreation Summer Program participants a chance to showcase their summer activities and talents to family and friends. For more information, call (623) 930-2820.

Film/Discussion Series. “Guess Who’s Coming to Dinner” (1967) starring Sidney Poitier, Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn will be shown at 1 p.m., Saturday, June 28 at the Foothills Branch Library, 19055 N. 57th Ave. Film scholar Jeannie Berg will lead a discussion following the film. Click here or call (623) 930-3844 for more information.

The Glendale Coffeehouse. The atmosphere is warm and friendly, and there is no better place to be at 7 p.m. on the first and third Wednesday of the month than the Glendale Coffeehouse at Glendale Main Library, 5959 W. Brown St.

Performing in the large meeting room on July 2 will be three terrific acts. Guitarist Matt Reese is new to the library spotlight. The second performer, Bill Clure, can be described with two phrases – modern guitar and “Dylan style.” Wrapping up the evening is the Katy Creek Band with western music and poetry from the cowboy perspective. To schedule a playing time or for more information, call (623) 930-3573. Admission is free.

Independence Day Holiday. City of Glendale offices and all three Glendale libraries will be closed on Friday, July 4 in observance of Independence Day. For information on holiday schedule changes in Sanitation services click here.

Glendale’s 4th of July Celebration. Get fired up for 4th of July fun! See story above.
